WELCOME

Ryan Hall is a dynamic professional in the field of education, design, production, music, and clinical instruction. As the previous Associate Director of Bands and Percussion Director at Clover High School in South Carolina from 2018 - 2026, Ryan led the Clover Indoor Drumline into back-to-back WGI World Championship titles both with record setting scores in 2022 and 2023, and a silver medal in the 2024 WGI World Championships. Clover is the 2025 CWEA Scholastic World Champions, and the 2026 silver medalists.

In addition to his role at Lake Wylie, Ryan is the current program coordinator for Civitas Independent, and has composed musical arrangements for Boise State University and the University of Virginia since 2016. Ryan has presented in New Orleans for the annual Winter Guard International conference and at the Idaho Music Educators Association. His extensive performance experience includes positions with Phantom Regiment and Carolina Crown. Ryan proudly endorses top brands including Vic Firth, Zildjian, Pearl/Adams, and Remo Drumheads.

With a Bachelor’s in Music Education from Western Carolina University and a Master’s in Music Education from Boise State University, Ryan's career is defined by his passion for musical excellence and dedication to mentorship.

He currently resides in Charlotte, North Carolina, with his wife Kaitlyn and their two German Shepherds Mila and Raven.
